COLLEGE PARK BAPTIST CHURCH

3 June 2018

Meditation of Preparation

When you're kind to people, and you pay attention, you make a field of comfort around them, and you get it back—the Golden Rule meets the Law of Karma meets Murphy's Law.

Anne Lamott, Plan B: Further Thoughts on Faith

'Do unto others' is a boomerang. Whatever you decide to throw out there will return to you. If you do not like what comes back - change your output.

★ Call to Worship

Children's Choir

Children:

We are marching in the light of God, we are marching in the light of God
We are marching in the light of God, we are marching in the light of God
Marching, marching, we are marching, marching, we are marching in the light of God
Marching, marching, we are marching, marching, we are marching in the light of God

All:

We are marching in the light of God...
We are dancing in the light of God...
We are singing in the light of God...
We are praying in the light of God...

South African

The Children's Choir members made the instruments they're performing on today from recycled bottles, cans, and other assorted parts from Wednesday night dinners.

★ Prayers of the People

★ Response

*Bring Your Kindness
(Repeat three times)*

★ Prayer of Confession

And the voice of God comes to us, as it came to Moses long ago by the burning bush:

“Take off your shoes; the earth on which you stand is holy ground, for I have hallowed it with my care and compassion since time began.”

Forgive us, O God, when we have eyes and do not see the beauty of your creation; Forgive us, O God, when we have ears and do not hear the wondrous music of heavenly spheres, not to mention the birds beneath our own windows.

Forgive us our poverty of the senses; and the shallowness of our sense of awe; Our misunderstanding of value as we put dollar signs on your other species, even as we destroy them.

Your whole universe, O God, O Creator, is a burning bush. It calls us to turn aside, to pay attention, to see and hear and sense—and to wonder and to praise.

Grant us new eyes, new ears, and newly awakened hearts; to enter into your courts of nature and praise your holy presence here.
Elizabeth Dodson Gray

Silence

Words of Assurance

★ Hymn #568

Lord, Speak to Me, that I May Speak

Hebrew Bible Reading

Micah 6.1-8, The Message

Take your stand in court. If you have a complaint, tell the mountains; make your case to the hills. And now, Mountains, hear God's case; listen, Jury Earth—for I am bringing charges against my people. I am building a case against Israel.

“Dear people, how have I done you wrong? Have I burdened you, worn you out? Answer! I delivered you from a bad life in Egypt; I paid a good price to get you out of slavery. I sent Moses to lead you—and Aaron and Miriam to boot!

Remember what Balak king of Moab tried to pull, and how Balaam son of Beor turned the tables on him. Remember all those stories about Shittim and Gilgal. Keep all God's salvation stories fresh and present.” How can I stand up before GOD and show proper respect to the high God? Should I bring an armload of offerings topped off with yearling calves? Would GOD be impressed with thousands of rams, with buckets and barrels of olive oil? Would God be moved if I sacrificed my firstborn child, my precious baby, to cancel my sin? But God's already made it plain how to live, what to do, what GOD is looking for in men and women. It's quite simple: Do what is fair and just to your neighbor, be compassionate and loyal in your love, and don't take yourself too seriously—take God seriously.

For the word of God in scripture,
for the word of God among us,
for the word of God within us,
Thanks be to God.

Depart in Peace

Golden Rule Living is the great simplifier. It places us in another soul's shoes, taking what can appear to be a complex decision that involves another and streamlining it to a one-step process of deciding, "If I wouldn't like this done to me, then I shall not do it to another."

Molly Friedenfeld, The Book of Simple Human Truths

College Park Baptist Church fully welcomes and affirms all persons without distinction regarding race, ethnicity, national origin, class, sexual orientation, gender identity, or any other human category.
