Carnegie Hall Debut

I want to share with you a condensed overview of an incredible experience. Let this stir your imagination.

Sunday, June 17, 2018, at 8:30pm, 9 members of the College Park Baptist Church choir sang as part of a 250-member choir and full orchestra, in the Isaac Stern Auditorium, on the Ronald O. Perelman Stage, at Carnegie Hall in New York City. This storied and majestic space has been hosting performances since 1891.

We performed: Our Father, A Journey Through The Lord's Prayer, by Pepper Choplin. Yes, Pepper is his real name. But before you chuckle, feel for his younger sister. Her name is Santa. No really, Santa. Heaven knows what Mr. and Mrs. Choplin were thinking.... maybe conception happened after a particularly memorable chili night and years later on Christmas.

Pepper Choplin is a full-time composer, conductor, and humorist. He has gained a reputation as one of the most creative writers in church music today. He has a BS from UNCG and Masters from SW Baptist Theological Seminary. He has published over 300 anthems for church and school choirs. Over 100 groups have commissioned him to write original works for them. Since 1991, his choral music has sold over 1 million copies. WOW!

Currently he attends Greystone Baptist Church in Raleigh. Our pastor prior to Michael Usey, the Rev. Mike Jamison, pastored at Greystone Baptist after leaving CP.

What was so integral to performing this piece, Our Father, was how we were able to understand from the composer himself what he wanted to convey and express with each word and note, and we could not get enough of it.

As the publisher's description says of Our Father: "It is rare to find a major non-seasonal cantata with such power and meaning. The Lord's Prayer forms the foundation of this creative work experience."

AND, AND, the most awesome part of this Pepper Choplin bio., is that he is an NC STATE fan. People, it don't get no better than this.

On May 5, 1891, at 8 pm the 1st concert was performed at Carnegie Hall. With folks like the Rockefellers paying $1-2 to listen to some dude named Pyotr Ilyich Tchaikovsky conduct his own composition of Marche solenelle.

Since 1894, and I quote from the historical biography of Carnegie Hall: "The prestige of making a Carnegie Hall appearance has unfailingly attracted the world's finest performers to its stage." You kinda see where this may be going?

Do you recognize some of these names: Paderewski, Rachmaninoff, Arthur Rubenstein, Horowitz, and Van Cliburn?

You seasoned adults remember the Bugs Bunny cartoon when, in a performance hall setting, the orchestra members start whispering among themselves:

"Leopold! Leopold!" Yes, Leopold Godowsky has conducted there.

Other names you may recognize: Menuhin, Itzhak Perlman, YoYo Ma, Caruso, Placido Domingo, Pavrotti, and Leotyne Price. WHOAHHHH

How about Louis Armstrong, Count Basie, Billy Holiday, Dizzie Gillespie, Ella Fitzgerald, Mel Torme, Miles Davis....Benny Goodman, Duke Ellington, Judy Garland, Ethel Merman, Nat King Cole, Frank Sinatra, Liza Minelli, Tony Bennett.

You youngsters remember a group called The Beatles, how about The Rolling Stones, and Stevie Wonder?

Now you can add to that list: Chuck Joyce, David Soyers, Caroline Joyce, Stephen Jones, Juanita Blackmon, Wayne Jones, Tom Hardin, Kate Jones, and last but not least, Susie Karczewski (the only one whose name sounds like she may have been related to half of those famous performers mentioned earlier).

WOW, are you kidding me? To have stood and sung where these musical icons also performed is beyond belief!

Now imagine other future performers like: Haley Turner, Elijah Pickard, Sarah Harris, Sarah Ramsey, Mitzi, Marjorie, and maybe a Christian and a River someday.

And for me personally to reflect back and think that I was given the opportunity to perform at Carnegie Hall with my wife, Susie, my daughter in law, Kate, and standing next to my son, Stephen, on Father's Day, June 17, 2018.

CP Choir at Carnegie Hall

Nine College Parkers traveled to New York City and sang in concert at Carnegie Hall on Sunday, June 17th.

Carnegie Hall Debut II

COLLEGE PARK CHOIR SINGS AT CARNEGIE HALL
June 17, 2018

One of the things I was most excited about was singing with such a huge number of people. The largest singing group I've ever been a part of was 60. But 250 was just mind-blowing. Bases alone numbered 50 or so. In the first rehearsal our first sound almost brought tears to my eyes. Just thrilling. We're talking Mormon Tabernacle size choir. And from all over—to my right a man from Ohio, on my left a man from Georgia, behind me a man from Ukraine, in front of me and a few seats over a man from Brazil.

But the man running the show, Pepper Choplin—the composer and director—impressed me beyond words. He amazed us all with his musicality, but I was struck by the depth of his thoughtfulness when he talked to us about what The Lord's Prayer means to him and what he wanted to convey to both singers and the audience in the 9 movements or anthems.

- The first anthem We are not alone sets the mind at peace before beginning the prayer itself. The words are repeated over and over as a haunting reassurance, sometimes hushed and other times swelling to an indisputable truth. "We are never alone. God is with us. Ever and ever."
- Our Father in Heaven says that God is the father of us all, celebrating humanity's kinship as we are all brothers and sisters within His creation. We call on Him to save us and to live among us.
- Holy be Thy name acknowledges God's preeminence as we experience his holiness.
- Let your Kingdom come—we most often call out for the Kingdom of God when the world seems especially cruel and unjust, when pain and suffering are all around us. Choplin even ventures to ask in the midst of trying times, "Where is God?"
- Give us this day—The prayer asks for our daily sustenance, but it also recognizes God as the giver of the day. This anthem calls on us to show our gratitude by living the day well and by cherishing each moment of life.
- Forgive us—Here we ask to be forgiven and to have the capacity to forgive others. But Choplin takes forgiveness an important step further by asking God to help us to forgive ourselves: "Though mistakes are in the past, we hold them in our grasp. And guilty memories remain, guilty voices stirring all the pain."
- Lead Us Not Into Temptation—In this most intense piece we pray that God will lead us far from the things that entangle us and change our lives in destructive ways. And finally Thine Is the Kingdom celebrates the power and majesty of God who created us, who leads us and who dwells in our souls.

I think we were all in awe of Pepper Choplin not just as a musician but also humorist and all-round good person, not to mention a Glenn Campbell look-a-like.

Thanks to him, I will never pray the Lord's Prayer in the way that I have all these many years. I'd also like to say, and I'm pretty sure the other 8 choir members will agree, that we are all truly grateful to JoAnn Hill, our interim director, Christian, our other interim director, and David Soyars, our organist/accompanist for preparing us for the last 2.5 months for this grand opportunity and privilege. Also, we are tremendously indebted to Mark File and David Soyars for taking care of all the detailed paper work, hotel and travel information and flat out making this experience possible. Without them we would never have even gone, much less found our way around once there.

And, if you thought you were going to hear stories about any naughtiness or bad behavior that went on during this trip, as Pepper Choplin said, "What happens in New York, goes on Facebook."

AMERICAN BAPTIST CHURCHES USA

June 15, 2018

Mr. Jeff Sessions, Attorney General
U.S. Department of Justice
950 Pennsylvania Avenue, NW
Washington, DC 20530-0001

Dear Attorney General Sessions,

I am writing to you today on behalf of the 5,000 congregations and 1.3 million members of the American Baptist Churches USA (ABCUSA). As General Secretary, I serve as the national pastor of the denomination. ABCUSA has a long and distinguished record of service in welcoming immigrants and refugees to communities throughout the United States.

The American Baptist family would like to communicate our deep concern over the unjust immigration policies of the United States government, and in particular, the unconscionable separation of children from their parents on our southern border. As a fellowship of Christ-followers who recall the trials of the child Jesus and his parents, who fled from persecution in their homeland to another country (Matthew 2:13-18), we adamantly oppose separating children from their relatives. A just society can fulfill its fidelity to its own laws and border security without resorting to such unwise and harmful practices; instead, we urge that compassion, fairness and family-affirming policies characterize our response to the plight of families on our borders. We note that destructive practices such as the separation of children from parents place a serious burden on our law enforcement agents and officials, who in carrying out such policies find their own consciences ethically compromised and troubled.

Furthermore, we strongly disagree with your erroneous appropriation of the New Testament (in particular, Romans 13) to justify inhumane and unjust governmental actions. No responsible Christian theologian would assert that Romans 13, or any other passage in the Bible, supports the horrific separation of children from parents that we are witnessing at the present time. In fact, both the Old and New Testaments call those who believe in God to welcome refugees and immigrants with open arms and friendship, with loving care and concern, and with the willingness to assist others in enjoying the prospects of a future based on hope and opportunity.

Accordingly, American Baptists wish to express our sincere hope that the separation of children and parents will immediately cease. We urge Congress and the President to approve and implement without delay more compassionate and just immigration policies and procedures. As the leading law enforcement official of our government, it is your privilege and responsibility to lead such an effort. Thank you for considering our position.

Sincerely,

Rev. Dr. Lee B. Spitzer, General Secretary
American Baptist Churches USA

Thank You

Dear Michael & Ann,

I've been meaning, for a while now, to tell you how much I appreciate having (re)learned the practice of daily pleasure reading—something for which I completely give CP the credit. For 2+ decades, I (incorrectly) persuaded myself that I lacked time, energy, etc. for reading. You do that long enough and you actually forget that you loved to read for pleasure. CP helps me on so many levels; that's no surprise at all. What is, is how CP helped my to discover my lost love—pleasure reading. No surprise: I have more energy, time, etc. when I read.

I devour every "Ladies of CP" quarterly read (even though work and family mostly prevent me from attending the discussions), and I generally like all our SS books.

Thank you!
Fondly,
Stephanie Kretz
