Are you planning to follow a career in Magical Law, Miss Granger?" asked Scrimgeour. "No, I'm not," retorted Hermione. "I'm hoping to do some good in the world!"

★ Call to Worship

O God, distant yet near,

We gather as witnesses to your promise that if we seek you with all our hearts, we will find you.

Be among us this day.

Hear the confessions of our mouths and the yearnings of our hearts.

Help us change the narrowness of our vision and the pettiness of our living.

Make us new again with your holy grace.

Grant us the maturity to accept your many gifts in humility and to use them with faithfulness.

Grant to us your spirit that our worship may have integrity and energy, ever witnessing to your holy presence in our lives.

We praise and give thanks to you, Eternal Presence; through Jesus Christ we pray. Amen.

★ Prayers of Thanksgiving

★ Response

*Bring Your Kindness
(Repeat Three Times)*

★ Prayer for the World & Unison Response

We are not alone. We live in God's world. We believe in God: who has created and is creating, who has come in Jesus, the Word made flesh, to reconcile and make new, who works in us and others by the Spirit. We trust in God. We are called to be the Church: to celebrate God's presence, to live with respect in Creation, to love and serve others, to seek justice and resist evil, to proclaim Jesus, crucified and risen, our judge and our hope. In life, in death, in life beyond death, God is with us. We are not alone. Thanks be to God.

Hebrew Bible Reading

Numbers 27.1-11, The Message

The daughters of Zelophehad showed up... The daughters were Mahlah, Noah, Hoglah, Milcah, and Tirzah. They came to the entrance of the Tent of Meeting. They stood before Moses and Eleazar the priest and before the leaders and the congregation and said, "Our father died in the wilderness. He wasn't part of Korah's rebel anti-God gang. He died for his own sins. And he left no sons. But why should our father's name die out from his clan just because he had no sons? So give us an inheritance among our father's relatives." Moses brought their case to God. God ruled: "Zelophehad's daughters are right. Give them land as an inheritance among their father's relatives. Give them their father's inheritance. Then tell the People of Israel, If a man dies and leaves no son, give his inheritance to his daughter. If he has no daughter, give it to his brothers. If he has no brothers, give it to his father's brothers. If his father had no brothers, give it to the nearest relative so that the inheritance stays in the family. This is the standard procedure for the People of Israel, as commanded by God through Moses."

Numbers 36.5-12

Moses, at God's command, issued this order to the People of Israel: "This is God's command to Zelophehad's daughters: They are free to marry anyone they choose as long as they marry within their ancestral clan. The inheritance-land of the People of Israel must not get passed around from tribe to tribe. No, keep the tribal inheritance-land in the family. Every daughter who inherits land, regardless of the tribe she is in, must marry a man from within her father's tribal clan. Every Israelite is responsible for making sure the inheritance stays within the ancestral tribe. No inheritance-land may be passed from tribe to tribe; each tribe of the People of Israel must hold tight to its own land." Zelophehad's daughters did just as God commanded Moses. Mahlah, Tirzah, Hoglah, Milcah, and Noah, Zelophehad's daughters, all married their cousins on their father's side. They married within the families of Manasseh son of Joseph and their inheritance-lands stayed in their father's family.

For the word of God in scripture,
for the word of God among us,
for the word of God within us,
Thanks be to God.

Most modern freedom is at root fear. It is not so much that we are too bold to endure rules; it is rather that we are too timid to endure responsibilities.

The first principle of value that we need to rediscover is this: that all reality hinges on moral foundations. In other words, that this is a moral universe, and that there are moral laws of the universe just as abiding as the physical laws.

I am free, no matter what rules surround me. If I find them tolerable, I tolerate them; if I find them too obnoxious, I break them. I am free because I know that I alone am morally responsible for everything I do.

Did you know that eating eating meat is the number one climate killer? Eating less or no meat will save water (2,500 gallons of water per one pound of beef), save the rainforest from being cut down for plantations to feed factory farm animals, stop the suffering of animals in concentrated animal feeding operations (CAFOs), and improve your health.

Fall Sermon Series:
Clothed with the Sun: Fierce Women from the Bible

Our fall sermon series is titled: Clothed with the Sun: Fierce Women from the Bible. Most every Sunday we'll hear about a woman from our sacred text. Some stories will be familiar, some will likely be new to you. Some might inspire, while others might be uncomfortable and odd. You can help us with photos and stories from the fierce women in your life.

Photos: Bring a framed photo of a fierce women in your life. It can be anyone—mother, sister, teacher, professor, pastor, counselor, daughter, doctor, aunt, etc. The pictures should be 5x7 or 8x10, already framed. They should NOT be original pictures that you would hate to lose. All the pictures will be returned, and we'll use them to adorn the communion table and worship windows.

Stories: We'd love to have your story about a fierce woman in your life. Can you tell about such a woman in 800 words or less? Please no stories about mothers—we all love our mothers, but we don't need 50 stories about our mothers.. Remember specifics make it more interesting. Tell us about an incredible woman who helped you in your life or spiritual journey. We'll share some of these (with your permission) in worship or in the Collage. We need them as soon as possible, but no later than Oct. 1, please.

Sunday Announcements
