★ Call to Worship

O Lord our God, in the midst of friends and family,
you come as a stranger seeking welcome.
In the midst of the practical and pragmatic matters of our lives,
you come as a dreamer pointing to a greater vision.

In the midst of our questions,
you come as a sure and solid rock,
and in the midst of our too-glib answers,
you come as a troubling question.

In the midst of ordinary people in an ordinary town on an ordinary corner, you come as the holy one.

And in the midst of the pomp and pageantry of the world,
you come as a simple child.

We cannot pin you down, O Lord.

We cannot box you in.

But grant to us the courage and the grace to welcome you as you come in our midst.
Amen.

New Testament Reading

Romans 16.1-7, NRSV

I commend to you our sister Phoebe, a deacon of the church at Cenchreae, so that you may welcome her in the Lord as is fitting for the saints, and help her in whatever she may require from you, for she has been a benefactor of many and of myself as well. Greet Prisca and Aquila, who work with me in Christ Jesus, and who risked their necks for my life, to whom not only I give thanks, but also all the churches of the Gentiles. Greet also the church in their house. Greet my beloved Epænetus, who was the first convert in Asia for Christ. Greet Mary, who has worked very hard among you. Greet Andronicus and Junia, my relatives who were in prison with me; they are prominent among the apostles, and they were in Christ before I was.

For the word of God in scripture,
for the word of God among us,
for the word of God within us,
Thanks be to God.

Children's Sermon

Karlan Barker

Children ages 3 through 4th grade are invited to come to the front for the children's sermon. Afterwards, children aged 3 may go to the toddlers' room, children ages 4 through 1st grade may leave for children's worship (room 110), 2nd graders and older may return to their seats.

Prayer for the World & Unison Response

We are not alone. We live in God's world. We believe in God: who has created and is creating, who has come in Jesus, the Word made flesh, to reconcile and make new, who works in us and others by the Spirit. We trust in God. We are called to be the Church: to celebrate God's presence, to live with respect in Creation, to love and serve others, to seek justice and resist evil, to proclaim Jesus, crucified and risen, our judge and our hope. In life, in death, in life beyond death, God is with us. We are not alone. Thanks be to God.
