GRACE

Prelude

* Call to Worship

Spirit God, in the beginning you gave life and movement, color and harmony to the universe.

Everything moves by your power and is one through you.

But most of all you move in the minds and spirits of men and women.

You give vision and insight, speaking spirit to spirit.

You stir the sleeping conscience, rouse the dormant mind, to seek justice, express beauty, declare truth.

Most of all you come in the power of Jesus, bringing love and joy and peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, self-control.

So move us now in mind and conscience; stir and quicken us with beauty and truth; and give us all your harvest, now and always. Amen.

* Prayers of the People

* Response

*Bring Your Kindness
(Repeat three times)*

Bring your kind-ness to our lives, Bring your jus-tice to our world.
God of love, hear your peo-ple.

* Prayer of Confession

Loving God, we gather as people who long to be faithful and we confess that our longing comes more easily than our faithfulness.

Although we sense your presence within us and among us, we often acknowledge your grace grudgingly or receive it clumsily.

We ask that you enable us to become an ever more grace-full people.

Help us to bear witness to your grace through the acceptance and compassion we show toward one another.

Encourage us to rely upon your grace as the basis for envisioning a world at peace.

Forgive us, we pray, when the faith we practice places primary trust in human inventions, powers, and systems.

Strengthen us to live a bold faith that instead places ultimate trust in your potent love and amazing grace.

In the name of Jesus Christ, Amen.

Words of Assurance

New Testament Reading

Luke 4.14-30, The Message

Jesus returned to Galilee powerful in the Spirit. News that he was back spread through the countryside. He taught in their meeting places to everyone's acclaim and pleasure. He came to Nazareth where he had been reared. As he always did on the Sabbath, he went to the meeting place. When he stood up to read, he was handed the scroll of the prophet Isaiah. Unrolling the scroll, he found the place where it was written, God's Spirit is on me; he's chosen me to preach the Message of good news to the poor, sent me to announce pardon to prisoners and recovery of sight to the blind, to set the burdened and battered free, to announce, "This is God's year to act!" He rolled up the scroll, handed it back to the assistant, and sat down. Every eye in the place was on him, intent. Then he started in, "You've just heard Scripture make history. It came true just now in this place." All who were there, watching and listening, were surprised at how well he spoke. But they also said, "Isn't this Joseph's son, the one we've known since he was a youngster?" He answered, "I suppose you're going to quote the proverb, 'Doctor, go heal yourself. Do here in your hometown what we heard you did in Capernaum.' Well, let me tell you something: No prophet is ever welcomed in his hometown. Isn't it a fact that there were many widows in Israel at the time of Elijah during that three and a half years of drought when famine devastated the land, but the only widow to whom Elijah was sent was in Sarepta in Sidon? And there were many lepers in Israel at the time of the prophet Elisha but the only one cleansed was Naaman the Syrian. That set everyone in the meeting place seething with anger. They threw him out, banishing him from the village, then took him to a mountain cliff at the edge of the village to throw him to his doom, but he gave them the slip and was on his way.

For the word of God in scripture,
for the word of God among us,
for the word of God within us,
Thanks be to God.
