* Call to Worship

These days, when slippery words and shaded truths are commonplace, we gather to proclaim the honest good news of God's love for all persons.

These days, when global divisions abound and internal stresses take their toll, we gather to share a faith that is the source of healing and serenity.

These days, when the demands for justice and commitment and compassion are great, we gather to strengthen ourselves and one another for the tasks of being a servant people. All thanks to God for gathering us together as the church. This day we shall strive to proclaim, to share and to strengthen our faith in Jesus Christ.

* Prayers of Thanksgiving

* Response

Bring Your Kindness
(Repeat Three Times)

Bring your kind-ness to our lives, Bring your jus-tice to our world.
God of love, hear your peo-ple.

* Prayer for the World & Unison Response

We are not alone. We live in God's world. We believe in God: who has created and is creating, who has come in Jesus, the Word made flesh, to reconcile and make new, who works in us and others by the Spirit. We trust in God. We are called to be the Church: to celebrate God's presence, to live with respect in Creation, to love and serve others, to seek justice and resist evil, to proclaim Jesus, crucified and risen, our judge and our hope. In life, in death, in life beyond death, God is with us. We are not alone. Thanks be to God.

Hebrew Bible Reading

Genesis 29.15-30, The Schocken Bible

Lavan said to Yaakov: Just because you are my brother, should you serve me for nothing? Tell me, what shall your wages be? Now Lavan had two daughters: the name of the elder was Lea, the name of the younger was Rahel. Lea's eyes were delicate, but Rahel was fair of form and fair to look at. And Yaakov fell in love with Rahel. He said: I will serve you seven years for Rahel, your younger daughter. Lavan said: My giving her to you is better than my giving her to another man; stay with me. So Yaakov served seven years for Rahel, yet they were in his eyes as but a few days, because of his love for her. Then Yaakov said to Lavan: Come-now, (give me) my wife, for my days-of-labor have been fulfilled, so that I may come in to her. Lavan gathered all the people of the place together and made a drinking-feast. Now in the evening he took Lea his daughter and brought her to him, and he came in to her. Lavan also gave her Zilpa his maid, for Lea his daughter as a maid. Now in the morning: here, she was Lea! He said to Lavan: What is this you have done to me! Was it not for Rahel that I served you? Why have you deceived me? Lavan said: Such is not done in our place, giving away the younger before the firstborn; just fill out the bridal-week for this one, then we shall give you that one also, for the service which you will serve me for yet another seven years. Yaakov did so—he fulfilled the bridal-week for this one, and then he gave him Rahel his daughter as a wife. Lavan also gave Rahel his daughter Bilha his maid, for her as a maid. So he came in to Rahel also, and he loved Rahel also, more than Lea. Then he served him for yet another seven years.

For the word of God in scripture,
for the word of God among us,
for the word of God within us,
Thanks be to God.
