Meditation of Preparation

There are people in the world so hungry that God cannot appear to them except in the form of bread.

Mahatma Gandhi

The test of our progress is not whether we add more to the abundance of those who have much; it is whether we provide enough for those who have too little.

Franklin D. Roosevelt

Poverty is the parent of revolution and crime.

GRACE

Prelude Pastorale on "Blessed Assurance" arr: Robert Lau

* Call to Worship

O God, distant yet near, we gather as witnesses to your promise that if we seek you with all our hearts, we will find you.

Be among us this day. Hear the confessions of our mouths and the yearnings of our hearts.

Help us change the narrowness of our vision and the pettiness of our living.

Make us new again with your holy grace.

Grant us the maturity to accept your many gifts in humility and to use them with faithfulness.

Grant to us your spirit that our worship may have integrity and energy, ever witnessing to your holy presence in our lives.

We praise and give thanks to you, Eternal Presence; through Jesus Christ we pray. Amen

Scripture Reading

Luke 6.17-26

The Message (MSG)

Coming down off the mountain with them, he stood on a plain surrounded by disciples, and was soon joined by a huge congregation from all over Judea and Jerusalem, even from the seaside towns of Tyre and Sidon. They had come both to hear him and to be cured of their ailments. Those disturbed by evil spirits were healed. Everyone was trying to touch him—so much energy surging from him, so many people healed! Then he spoke: You're blessed when you've lost it all. God's kingdom is there for the finding. You're blessed when you're ravenously hungry. Then you're ready for the Messianic meal. You're blessed when the tears flow freely. Joy comes with the morning. Count yourself blessed every time someone cuts you down or throws you out, every time someone smears or tarnishes your name to discredit me. What it means is that the truth is too close for comfort and that that person is uncomfortable. You can be glad when that happens—skip like a lamb, if you like!—for even though they don't like it, I do . . . and all heaven applauds. And know that you are in good company; my preachers and witnesses have always been treated like this. But it's trouble ahead if you think you have it made. What you have is all you'll ever get. And it's trouble ahead if you're satisfied with yourself. Your self will not satisfy you for long. And it's trouble ahead if you think life's all fun and games. There's suffering to be met, and you're going to meet it. There's trouble ahead when you live only for the approval of others, saying what flatters them, doing what indulges them. Popularity contests are not truth contests—look how many scoundrel preachers were approved by your ancestors! Your task is to be true, not popular.

For the word of God in scripture,
for the word of God among us,
for the word of God within us,
Thanks be to God.

Anthem

For the Beauty of the Earth

Children's Sermon

Karlan Barker

Children ages 3 through 4th grade are invited to come to the front for the children's sermon. Afterwards, children aged 3 may go to the toddlers' room, children ages 4 through 1st grade may leave for children's worship (room 110), 2nd graders & older may return to their seats.

Prayer for the World & Serenity Prayer

God grant me the serenity to accept the things I cannot change; courage to change the things I can; and wisdom to know the difference. Living one day at a time; Enjoying one moment at a time; Accepting hardships as the pathway to peace; Taking, as Jesus did, this sinful world as it is, not as I would have it; Trusting that God will make all things right if I surrender to God's will; That I may be reasonably happy in this life and supremely happy with God forever in the next. Amen.

Reinhold Niebuhr

Sermon

Speaking Plainly

Michael Usey

Moment of Silence

I've been making a list of the things they don't teach you at school. They don't teach you how to love somebody. They don't teach you how to be famous. They don't teach you how to be rich or how to be poor. They don't teach you how to walk away from someone you don't love any longer. They don't teach you how to know what's going on in someone else's mind. They don't teach you what to say to someone who's dying. They don't teach you anything worth knowing.

Neil Gaiman, The Kindly Ones

Jazz: America's Music of Freedom

This spring, in collaboration with the UNCG Miles Davis Jazz Studies Program, we will be offering a monthly recital series called "Jazz: America's Music of Freedom." Jazz originated in African-American communities of New Orleans as both expression and resistance in response to oppression and racism in the late 19th to early 20th century. Concerts will be held in Forest Chapel at 1pm on fourth Saturdays from February through April (2/23, 3/23, 4/27). Join us as we listen to and learn about this great Black American art form!

Women of Valor

The Women of Valor book club will meet on Tuesday, February 26th at 6:30pm (this is a new earlier start time) to discuss Mudbound by Hillary Jordan. We will meet at Lisa Elkins' house. Please bring a snack to share.

Community Bulletin Board

If you'd like to see what our other members are up to in the community or if you have an event you'd like to advertise yourself, we now have a community bulletin board available in the main hallway, outside the office.

Missions Committee:

We are in need of a few more members to serve on the missions committee. If you are interested in helping to coordinate the missions focus for our church, this is the place for you. Missions committee organizes many of the church's outreaches including the Three Nickels campaign, support for refugee resettlements, serving at GUM, our Angel Tree gifts, and many more. This is usually a 3-year commitment, but if you would like to make a shorter commitment, you would still be very welcome! Please contact Amy Lowrance amylowrance2@gmail.com or Mike Baumann baumann.mike@gmail.com if you would like to serve.

Tai Chi

A good way to keep up your New Year's resolutions is with Tai Chi, which develops focus. As the founder of Golden Flower Tai Chi, Master San Gee Tam, says, "Focus is an important determinant of whether you'll achieve a goal or stick to creating healthy habits. If you can maintain your focus, your mind and spirit will bring a centered power to achieving that goal." Tai Chi at College Park continues in 2019, Thursdays, 6:30 pm in the Chapel. Invite a friend!

Priorities of Our Church

1. We serve our community. We actively work for the benefit of our community; we are known for seeking Greensboro's welfare, both as a congregation and as individuals.
2. We encourage everyone to be connected. We seek connection through small groups that offer opportunities for fellowship, for deeper relationships, and for developing our faith. Because of the growing number of these groups, new members will find ready opportunity for becoming involved and making friends.
3. We sustain the financial health of our congregation. We are mindful of the financial well-being of our congregation; we ensure that the buildings housing our ministries are maintained and preserved, and the programs and staff supporting our ministry are fully funded.
4. We nurture lay involvement and empower leadership. We are purposeful in encouraging members to undertake their individual calls to ministry and in helping them prepare for involvement and leadership.
5. We exist and minister in the name of God in Christ. We are distinctively Christian and seek to follow Jesus as Lord.
