Meditation of Preparation

Here's to the crazy ones. The misfits. The rebels. The troublemakers. The round pegs in the square holes. The ones who see things differently. They're not fond of rules. And they have no respect for the status quo. You can quote them, disagree with them, glorify or vilify them. About the only thing you can't do is ignore them. Because they change things. They push the human race forward. And while some may see them as the crazy ones, we see genius. Because the people who are crazy enough to think they can change the world, are the ones who do.

Prelude

★ Call to Worship

In the light of your love shining through the life of Jesus, O God, we offer ourselves to you.

In the light of the world's need for people who can truly love, we offer ourselves to you.

In the light of our own failures in the past to live unselfishly, we offer ourselves to you.

We put body, mind, and soul at the disposal of your love. Use us as you will to meet the needs of your family on earth.

Mold our lives so that the love and power of Christ may work through us.

Renew the life of this congregation so that Christ may be seen more clearly in our midst.

★ Prayer for the World & Unison Response

Eternal Spirit, Earth-maker, Pain bearer, Life-giver, Source of all that is and that shall be, Father and Mother of us all, Loving God, in whom is heaven: The hallowing of your name echoes through the universe; The way of your justice be followed by the peoples of the world; Your heavenly will be done by all created beings; Your commonwealth of peace and freedom sustain our hope and come on earth. With the bread we need for today, feed us. In the hurts we absorb from one another, forgive us. In times of temptation and test, strengthen us. From trial too great to endure, spare us. From the grip of all that is evil, free us. For you reign in the glory of the power that is love, now and forever. Amen.

New Testament Reading

2 Corinthians 8.1-15

New Revised Standard Version

We want you to know, brothers and sisters, about the grace of God that has been granted to the churches of Macedonia; for during a severe ordeal of affliction, their abundant joy and their extreme poverty have overflowed in a wealth of generosity on their part. For, as I can testify, they voluntarily gave according to their means, and even beyond their means, begging us earnestly for the privilege of sharing in this ministry to the saints— and this, not merely as we expected; they gave themselves first to the Lord and, by the will of God, to us, so that we might urge Titus that, as he had already made a beginning, so he should also complete this generous undertaking among you. Now as you excel in everything—in faith, in speech, in knowledge, in utmost eagerness, and in our love for you—so we want you to excel also in this generous undertaking. I do not say this as a command, but I am testing the genuineness of your love against the earnestness of others. For you know the generous act of our Lord Jesus Christ, that though he was rich, yet for your sakes he became poor, so that by his poverty you might become rich. And in this matter I am giving my advice: it is appropriate for you who began last year not only to do something but even to desire to do something— now finish doing it, so that your eagerness may be matched by completing it according to your means. For if the eagerness is there, the gift is acceptable according to what one has—not according to what one does not have. I do not mean that there should be relief for others and pressure on you, but it is a question of a fair balance between your present abundance and their need, so that their abundance may be for your need, in order that there may be a fair balance. As it is written, “The one who had much did not have too much, and the one who had little did not have too little.”

For the word of God in scripture,
for the word of God among us,
for the word of God within us,
Thanks be to God.

Can Buy Me Love

Moment of Silence

I love money. I love everything about it. I bought some pretty good stuff. Got me a $300 pair of socks. Got a fur sink. An electric dog polisher. A gasoline powered turtleneck sweater. And, of course, I bought some dumb stuff, too.

★ Commissioning of Passport Participants: Lin Story-Bunce
Eagle Eyrie, Virginia

We of the congregation want those of you going on mission this summer to grow in your faith as Jesus grew in his faith.

And Jesus increased in wisdom and stature and in favor with God and people. [Luke 2]

We hope that you will grow in the spirit of God and bear fruit that reflects the kingdom of heaven.

The fruit of the spirit is love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, self-control. [Galatians 5]

We remember the contribution of individuals who make this mission possible; the time, the imagination, and the money that comes from people in this congregation.

I have received full payment from the gifts you sent, a fragrant offering, a sacrifice acceptable and pleasing to God. [Philippians 4]

We hope your experience on mission will go well. Hold us in your prayers as we will hold you in our prayers.

I thank my God in all my remembrance of you, in every prayer of mine for your partnership in the gospel from the first day until now. [Philippians 1]

Depart in Peace

Financial peace isn't the acquisition of stuff. It's learning to live on less than you make, so you can give money back and have money to invest. You can't win until you do this.
