Meditation of Preparation

I don't want whatever I want. Nobody does. Not really. What kind of fun would it be if I just got everything I ever wanted just like that, and it didn't mean anything? What then?

Neil Gaiman, Coraline

When what you value and dream about doesn't match the life you are living, you have pain.

GRACE

Prelude

★ Call to Worship

Make no mistake. This blessing that comes like hands laid upon your head, a mantle draped across your shoulders: you do not bear it alone. Think of it as lineage, as litany: an ancient legacy entwining you among the strands that weave through generations and centuries, that spiral with the enduring and determined grace of the story that has seized you, and the One who has claimed and called you. Take heart that this blessing comes to you singed and scorched, signed by the blazing of wonders you can barely imagine and by trials that have already tested you, or you would not have found your way this far. Lay it down, and it will be a path for you across terrain you never imagined daring to cross. Take it up, and know the presence of those who have passed this on to you: who encompass you, who enfold you, who go with you, and release you into the keeping of the road that is your own and the One who has called your name.

★ Prayer for the World & Unison Response

We are not alone. We live in God's world. We believe in God: who has created and is creating, who has come in Jesus, the Word made flesh, to reconcile and make new, who works in us and others by the Spirit. We trust in God. We are called to be the Church: to celebrate God's presence, to live with respect in Creation, to love and serve others, to seek justice and resist evil, to proclaim Jesus, crucified and risen, our judge and our hope. In life, in death, in life beyond death, God is with us. We are not alone. Thanks be to God.

Hebrew Bible Reading

2 Kings 2:1-12, The Message

Just before GOD took Elijah to heaven in a whirlwind, Elijah and Elisha were on a walk out of Gilgal. Elijah said to Elisha, "Stay here. GOD has sent me on an errand to Bethel." Elisha said, "Not on your life! I'm not letting you out of my sight!" So they both went to Bethel. The guild of prophets at Bethel met Elisha and said, "Did you know that GOD is going to take your master away from you today?" "Yes," he said, "I know it. But keep it quiet." Then Elijah said to Elisha, "Stay here. GOD has sent me on an errand to Jericho." Elisha said, "Not on your life! I'm not letting you out of my sight!" So they both went to Jericho. The guild of prophets at Jericho came to Elisha and said, "Did you know that GOD is going to take your master away from you today?" "Yes," he said, "I know it. But keep it quiet." Then Elijah said to Elisha, "Stay here. GOD has sent me on an errand to the Jordan." Elisha said, "Not on your life! I'm not letting you out of my sight!" And so the two of them went their way together. Meanwhile, fifty men from the guild of prophets gathered some distance away while the two of them stood at the Jordan. Elijah took his cloak, rolled it up, and hit the water with it. The river divided and the two men walked through on dry land. When they reached the other side, Elijah said to Elisha, "What can I do for you before I'm taken from you? Ask anything." Elisha said, "Your life repeated in my life. I want to be a holy man just like you." "That's a hard one!" said Elijah. "But if you're watching when I'm taken from you, you'll get what you've asked for. But only if you're watching." And so it happened. They were walking along and talking. Suddenly a chariot and horses of fire came between them and Elijah went up in a whirlwind to heaven. Elisha saw it all and shouted, "My father, my father! You—the chariot and cavalry of Israel!" When he could no longer see anything, he grabbed his robe and ripped it to pieces.

For the word of God in scripture,
for the word of God among us,
for the word of God within us,
Thanks be to God.

Sunday Announcements

Creation. Care. Consideration.

Switch to LED light bulbs. They do cost more than conventional light bulbs, but the benefits outweigh the cost. They use 25-85% less energy, last 3-25% longer, and are much better/safer for the environment. When replacing your bulbs, start with the lights that you use the most.

Toddlers: Our 2 and 3 year olds participate in music, games and crafts as they begin exploring their world. These children participate in the Angel Choir weekly at the beginning of their class, led by Lisa Elkins.

Teachers: Dara Edwards and Nancy Schloss

Pre-K and Kindergarteners: Our 4 and 5 year olds begin learning the stories of our faith through music, games and art projects. Our goal is that they begin to understand the love that God and their church family has for them. These children also participate in the Angel Choir with Lisa Elkins at the beginning of their class each week.

Teachers: Kari Baumann, Caroline Joyce and Terri Ramsey

1st and 2nd graders: Our 6 and 7 year olds continue learning the stories of our faith each week, exploring God's world and how God acts through God's people. This is also a very active class, with hands-on activities, games, art, science and music.

Teachers: Allison Blay and Walt Pickard

3rd through 5th graders: Our upper elementary students begin to study the stories of Jesus in a deeper way, gaining a vision of how God wants God's people to treat each other and the world. These students also begin developing Bible literacy skills, such as learning the books of the Bible, memorizing short verses and being able to find verses in the Bible. They participate weekly in games, art and science as a means of exploring the truths of our faith and our world. They also attend Passport overnight camp in June together.

Teachers: Lauren Grubbs, Anna and Peter Martinek-Jenne

Youth Sunday School—Fellowship Hall

6th - 12th

In this hour, our youth will engage in relevant conversations about life and faith. We hope that when our youth leave CP, they have the ability to continue some form of personal, spiritual practice and that they have the tools to critically read and consider the sacred texts of their faith.

Adult Classes

Bible 101—Room 308

We will begin our study with the book of Galatians. It documents a deep division in the early church over the role of the Hebrew Bible in the life of a Christian. Please join us and add your perspective to this critical question.

God in Books – Room 303

This class reads and discusses a variety of Christian literature. This fall the class is continuing to read Faith Stories.

Generations—Parlor

The Generations class began as a combination class of our College Park Young Adults and our Senior Adults - but truly anyone is welcome! We are using the Formations curriculum to help us learn together and learn from each other about life and faith. This class meets during the Sunday morning Sunday School hour in the Parlor.
