Meditation of Preparation

For outlandish creatures like us, on our way to a heart, a brain, and courage, Bethlehem is not the end of our journey but only the beginning - not home but the place through which we must pass if ever we are to reach home at last.
 Frederick Buechner, The Magnificent Defeat

At this Christmas when Christ comes, will he find a warm heart? Mark the season of Advent by loving and serving the others with God's own love and concern.
 Mother Teresa, Love: A Fruit Always in Season

★ Call to Worship

In each heart lies a Bethlehem, an inn where we must ultimately answer whether there is room or not. When we are Bethlehem-bound, we experience our advent in his. When we are Bethlehem-bound, we can no longer look the other way, conveniently not seeing stars, not hearing angel voices. We can no longer excuse ourselves by busily tending our sheep or our kingdoms. This Advent, let's go to Bethlehem and see this thing that the Lord has made known to us. In the midst of shopping sprees, let's ponder in our hearts the Gift of Gifts. Through the tinsel, let's look for the gold of the Christmas Star. In the excitement and confusion, in the merry chaos, let's listen for the brush of angels' wings. This Advent, let's go to Bethlehem and find our kneeling places. Ann Weems

Lighting the Advent Candle: Healing

Today we light the Candle of Healing. Let this light shine. Wherever trust have been betrayed and dreams have been shattered, let this light shine. Wherever grief has made its home, let this light shine. Wherever there are people who are wounded and weary, anxious and hurting, let this light shine. And Jesus said, "The Lord has anointed me . . . To bind up the broken hearted." May this light shine.

New Testament Bible Reading

Luke 1.39-55

New Revised Standard Version (NRSV)

In those days Mary set out and went with haste to a Judean town in the hill country, where she entered the house of Zechariah and greeted Elizabeth. When Elizabeth heard Mary's greeting, the child leaped in her womb. And Elizabeth was filled with the Holy Spirit and exclaimed with a loud cry, "Blessed are you among women, and blessed is the fruit of your womb. ⁴³ And why has this happened to me that the mother of my Lord comes to me? For as soon as I heard the sound of your greeting, the child in my womb leaped for joy. And blessed is she who believed that there would be a fulfillment of what was spoken to her by the Lord." And Mary said, "My soul magnifies the Lord, and my spirit rejoices in God my Savior, for God has looked with favor on the lowliness of this servant. Surely, from now on all generations will call me blessed; for the Mighty One has done great things for me, and holy is the Lord's name. God's mercy is for those who fear God from generation to generation. The Lord has shown strength with God's arm; God has scattered the proud in the thoughts of their hearts. The Lord has brought down the powerful from their thrones, and lifted up the lowly; God has filled the hungry with good things, and sent the rich away empty. The Lord has helped servant Israel, in remembrance of God's mercy, according to the promise God made to our ancestors, to Abraham and to his descendants forever.

For the word of God in scripture,
 for the word of God among us,
 for the word of God within us,
 Thanks be to God.

★ Prayer for the World & Unison Response

In our secret yearnings, we wait for your coming, and in our grinding despair, we doubt that you will. And in this privileged place, we are surrounded by witnesses who yearn more than do we and by those who despair more deeply than do we. Look upon your church and its pastors in this season of hope which runs so quickly to fatigue and in this season of yearning which becomes so easily quarrelsome. Give us the grace and the impatience to wait for your coming to the bottom of our toes, to the edges of our fingertips. We do not want our several worlds to end. Come in your power and come in your weakness in any case and make all things new. Amen. Walter Brueggemann

Anthem

The First Noel/Pachelbel's Canon arr: Michael Clawson

Moment of Silence

Openness to God demands our growing acceptance that we cannot create blueprints for our own lives. Though God's character is unchanging, the ways of God are unpredictable, and there is a difference between arbitrariness and unpredictability.

Enuma Okoro

Prayer of Confession

Lin Story-Bunce

Lord God, forgive our clouded memory: In the dark crevices of our hiding we forget how you said, "Let there be light." In the confused turns of our choosing we forget how you said, "You shall have no other gods." In the lonely corners of our living we forget how you said, "To us a child is born." Fulfill in this place today the truth you spoke long ago. We pray in the name of Jesus Christ . Amen.

Silence

Leader: You are loved. You are forgiven. So be at peace.

Politicians compete for the highest offices. Business tycoons scramble for a bigger and bigger piece of the pie. Armies march and scientists study and philosophers philosophise and preachers preach and labourers sweat. But in that silent baby, lying in that humble manger, there pulses more potential power and wisdom and grace and aliveness than all the rest of us can imagine.

Depart in Peace

One of the essential paradoxes of Advent: that while we wait for God, we are with God all along, that while we need to be reassured of God's arrival, or the arrival of our homecoming, we are already at home. While we wait, we have to trust, to have faith, but it is God's grace that gives us that faith. As with all spiritual knowledge, two things are true, and equally true, at once. The mind can't grasp paradox; it is the knowledge of the soul.
